The hot sunny days have led to the Masonic Angels uncovering their 2 wheeled monsters and setting out on another run.

Early on a cloudy, misty morning on the 6th June, eleven hardy souls met up at the Sowton Services near Okehampton. After a warming cup of coffee they set off to Holsworthy at a good pace and were only occasionally slowed by the mist. From Holsworthy back up the A388 to Bideford as the mist lifted and the sun burnt its way into the heavens. Over the Torridge Bridge to Barnstaple.

Across the new Taw Bridge to Braunton where lunch was awaiting us in the Agricultural Inn with 'Mine Host' and Chef Julian Turner from St. Nicholas Lodge in Ilfracombe.

Having been suitably refreshed with superb fayre and local ale it was time to wend our ways home after having spent a most enjoyable day in the company of 'like minded people'!

The Masonic Angels take to the roads again.

Rideout to Slapton Sands 15/08/10

We don't know how he does it but once again, in the middle of a spell of wet miserable weather, John 'Knight Rider' Sevieri managed to pick a superb day for our next rideout.

After meeting at Bridge Motorcycles in Exeter for the traditional cup of hot coffee, and a quick look at the 'goodies' for sale in the shop, we mounted our machines and roared off towards Starcross.

Through Dawlish, and Teignmouth, over Shaldon Bridge and on towards Torbay. With bikes getting very hot in the holiday traffic we finally got through Torquay and Paignton and on to Dartmouth. Flying past a fleet of cars waiting to board the higher ferry (don't tell them we are Freemasons!) we crossed the Dart and rode on through the beautiful coastal countryside of the South Hams. Parking our machines close to an old Sherman Tank (recovered from the sea after being lost during D-Day practices) we reached our destination – the Start Bay Inn.

Crab Sandwiches (priced for the holidaymakers) and a pint of Ale soon refreshed us and enabled us to fight off the swarm of wasps that were determined to eat our food and drink our beer! Suitably refreshed we then headed off in our various directions for a leisurely ride home.
